FILM CHECK-LIST FOR MAY 21ST

FILM SONG CLIPS @ www.wscottjazz.com

SABRINA (1994)

"Moonlight", written by John Williams comes from this fun, witty rom-com remake of the 1954 Audrey Hepburn classic.

THE WORLD ACCORDING TO GARP (1982)

"There Will Never Be Another You" is the standard that is woven into this quirky Robin Williams dramedy adapted from John Irving's novel.

THE UMBRELLAS OF CHERBOURG (1964)

"I Will Wait For You" and "Watch What Happens" come from this jazz-infused French operetta creatively scored by Michel Legrand.

YOUNG FRANKENSTEIN (1974)

"Puttin' on the Ritz", the Irving Berlin standard was used to great effect in this Mel Brooks and Gene Wilder comedy classic.

STATE FAIR (1945)

"It Might as Well Be Spring" sprung from this classic 1945 movie musical from Rodgers and Hammerstein featuring Jeanne Crain and Dick Haymes.

DECONSTRUCTING HARRY (1997)

"Twisted", penned and sung by Annie Ross, is used in this hilarious Woody Allen film starring...well, just about everybody in the late 1990s.

CHARADE (1963)

Title song, "Charade" is a compelling song from a compelling Cary Grant thriller. Known as the Hitchcock film not made by Hitchcock.

CALAMITY JANE (1953)

"Secret Love" is the standard to come out of this 1950s Doris Day film, a response to the immense success of Annie Get Your Gun.

PUNCH DRUNK LOVE (2002)

"He Needs Me", originally from Altman's Popeye, is used in Adam Sandler's deepest movie, directed by pro, Paul Thomas Anderson.

INVITATION (1952)

Title track, "Invitation" is from a powerful drama with equally powerful acting from Dorothy McGuire.

THOMAS CROWN AFFAIR (1999)

"Windmills of Your Mind" comes from both this version and original from 1968. Revamp stars Pierce Brosnan in a smart thriller.

BREAKFAST AT TIFFANY'S (1961)

"Slow, Hot, Wind (Lujon)" is the less famous song by Henry Mancini to come from this classic Blake Edwards & Audrey Hepburn comedy.
